- bounce
- chowder
- devour
- discount
- drowsy
- hourly
- house
- mouse
- pounce

Focus

This week's focus is on ou and ow diphthongs that appear in two-syllable words and one-syllable words that end with silent e.

Helpful Hint

A diphthong, or gliding vowel, starts with one vowel sound and ends with a slightly different vowel sound in the same syllable. Ou (mouth) and ow (cow) patterns are two examples. Even though they make the same sound, ou only appears in the beginning or middle of a syllable (bounce, hour·ly). The ow pattern can appear at the beginning, middle, or end of a syllable (chow·der, drow·sy, al·low).

Spelling word practice

In the space provided write each of your 15 spelling words 5 times, focus on writing legibly and spelling correctly.
